

I oppose this petition because it would create a system of testing for amateur radio operation that would be impossible to manage. The identification of licensed privileges would be mind boggeling to say the least. This petition would create a deterrent rather than an encouragement to obtain a license to operate and to experiment in other modes to gain experience and technical ability.